The Colonial

Shrewsbury Junior-Senior High School

Shrewsbury, Massachusetts

Foreword

As the years go their way we tend to let slip from mind the great moments of earlier days. To help us keep fresh in our minds the events of our school days, we have prepared this volume to record the building of our new high school by the community of our parents and the development of our minds by our Principal and teachers, the acquiring of attitudes and skills by the drill in the class and the molding of friendships and tolerant respect by participation in school clubs and athletics. We have seen our new school grow physically. We know that, in developing a curriculum, our Principal has kept pace with the times. When we look back we certainly will appreciate how we had grown intellectually, physically and spiritually. All of us have been building for the future. These are the memories that we hope will refresh and renew us.

Dedica

Miss Mary T. Donelan

As students of Major Beal High School, and now of the new Shrewsbury Junior-Senior High School, we will always remember the considerate and unending assistance of Miss Donelan, For her willingness to assist us in many of our undertakings, we, the class of 1959, wish to dedicate this volume of the COLONIAL to Miss Mary T. Donelan.

Mr. John J. Connelly

The class of 1959 has had the privilege of knowing Mr. Connelly in a threefold role — that of biology teacher, advisor, and friend. His winning smile and notable personality has many times cheered the halls of Shrewbury High. In appreciation for his unflagging service in our numerous class projects, we, the class of 1959, dedicate this 1959 COLONIAL to Mr. John J. Connelly.

IN MEMORIAM

Paul Melander

The passing of Paul Melander cannot be easily forgotten, for he was a true companion to all and an asset to the class. This page is only an incomplete expression of our sorrow, yet soothing memories of his fun and laughter will long be remembered.

TO A FELLOW CLASSMATE

We cannot say and will not say
That he is dead, he's just away.
The nicest boy the world could hold
With a pleasant smile and a heart of gold.

Always generous, loving and kind,
What a beautiful memory to leave behind.
All those who knew him are sure to know
How much we lost one year ago.

Never to be forgotten because he's asleep
'Till in eternity we will someday meet.

Class History

"Tempus fugit" — "time flies" — as the old Latin proverb goes, and little did we, the class of 1959, expect these happy and memorable years at Shrewsbury High to pass as quickly as they have.

The fall of 1955 brought together eager and ambitious boys and girls meeting to form lasting friendships and to climb each rung of a ladder to the top; we were the frivolous Freshmen who entered the halls of good old Beal High.

Our first important activity as Freshmen was the election of class officers. Chosen as our able leaders were Louis Johnson and John Trinder, sharing the honors of the presidency; John Marcimo, vice-president; Susan Mattero, secretary; and Patricia Jacobson, treasurer. Representatives for Student Council were John Trinder, John Fanning, and Anita Reetz. Under the leadership of Mrs. Elizabeth Hamel, the field of dramatics was opened to us with the preparation for the Freshman Prize Speaking Contest. Elaine Carlson walked off with top honors with her riotous interpretation of "Why Do They Call It Baby-sitting?", while Brian Murphy and Patricia Toombs captured second and third.

Having conquered the complexities of our study schedule and the maze of rooms and rules, we settled down to the usual course of action for Freshmen. Enthusiastically we cheered our football team on, as it sported two fine Freshman players, John Trinder and John Marcimo, who played prominent parts in the great victory over Gardner, and who later became the able co-captains of the 1959 Colonials. Next on the agenda was our Freshman Social, "Getting To Know You," which was a tremendous success due to the efforts of Mrs. Hamel. Soon we found our Freshman year rapidly approaching its close.

September, 1956 rolled around and we were the sophisticated Sophomores, now perched on the second rung toward the top. As class officers we elected John Trinder as president; Jon Adams, vice-president; Susan Mattero, secretary; and Phyllis Fyffe, treasurer. Those participating in Student Council activities were Anita Reetz, Ken Turnquist, Gail Garland, and Carolyn Rigiero. Under the guidance of our new advisors, Mr. Sullivan, Mr. Connelly, and Mrs. King, we undertook many class projects. We chose the selling of sweatshirts with the Colonial emblem as our first project; this swelled our treasury considerably. With the coming of spring there came our Sophomore Hop, under the fine leadership of Louise Horton, general chairman. The life-size Calypso dance figures turned Nee Hall into a realistic "Calypso Capers." Another year had come to a close and already plans were being made for those glorious summer months.

September of 1957 found us on the third rung of our ladder. Being old pros at casting our ballots we elected as our capable leaders, Jon Adams, president; Allen Tucker, vice-president; Susan Mattero, secretary; and Phyllis Fyffe, treasurer. To speak for us in Student Council matters we chose Ken Turnquist, Anita Reetz, Gail Garland, Carolyn Rigiero, and Elaine Carlson. At last, came the night of May 29. We had been waiting for this night ever since we were old enough to know of dances, our own Junior Prom. The theme was "Moonlight Mood" and the mist of heavenly moonlight truly added to the enchantment of the evening. Nancy Reardon was our Queen, and she was crowned with all the splendor that could fulfill any Cinderella's dream. Her court of lovelies consisted of Priscilla Andersen, Judy Lutz, Dolores Perna, and Anita Reetz. For such a wonderful time and year we can only thank Mr. Sullivan,

Mr. Connelly, and Mrs. King. After that event, anything that happened for the remainder of the year was strictly anti-climactic! We just drifted into summer on a cloud (the number does not matter.)

The closing of the summer months found us eagerly awaiting the start of our final and most important year of high school. We reported to Beal with the promise of being the first class to graduate from the new Shrewsbury Junior-Senior High School. Our feelings were mixed with anticipation and regret. After spending three and a half eventful years at beloved Beal, the Seniors found it difficult to adjust themselves to the spacious halls of the new school. The last and most memorable event in the "old school" in which we showed our pride in our football and hockey teams, was the annual Victory Dance, which was an overwhelming success, both financially and socially.

Then, on November 19, 1958, the big move was made into the new school. With the coming of December, rehearsals for the Senior Class Play, "Time Out for Ginger", with Joyce Napoli playing the leading role, commenced.

The hustle-packed year of 1959 saw the beginning of our proudest achievement, the "Colonial". Allen Tucker headed the competent staff which worked long and laboriously under the most helpful guidance of Mr. Lavelle. Everyone worked hard selling ads, preparing the composition of copy, art work, photography, conferring with the publishers, and at last submitting the final copy. Then we settled down and patiently waited for the finished product.

This was an exceptional year for our girl's basketball team. They had a terrific season, and claimed the runner-up trophy in the basketball tournament. Needless to say we are very proud of the team and its co-captains Pat Vaughan and Joyce Sandberg.

Those who were going on the class trip anxiously waited for Spring vacation. When it finally arrived, we set off for the long anticipated trip to Washington and New York. There were many things to see and places to go, but since we only had a few days, we managed to see the most important. Back at school after Spring vacation, there was much to do before we graduated. Finally, Class Day arrived, and, of course, the Class Banquet, which we all enjoyed. At last graduation night was here, and we were at the top of our ladder. It took a lot of hard work to get this far, but we were all proud that we had made it. As we looked out into the audience of parents, relatives, teachers, and friends, we could see their pride in us, too. We will always cherish our high school days.

The proper balance is struck at our school. We may applaud and hero-worship the athlete but we also recognize the scholar and the good school citizen. With the coming of Spring seniors who merit it are chosen for the National Honor Society and are installed by way of ceremony that is simple and dignified. The basic qualification is scholarship and the attributes of leadership, service and character. It was fitting that for the first installaion held in our new school so many seniors met the high qualifications. Juniors are usually chosen and installed just before graduation every June. Mr. James Cooke, Miss Ethel Sawin, Miss Mildred Shea, Miss Helen Parks, and Mr. William Donovan are sponsors.

Student Council

Sitting: M. Gaimari, R. Regan, G. Garland, E. Carlson, K. Turnquist, J. Adams, P. Grosso. Standing: L. Estabrook, R. Savastano, C. Rigiero, Miss Ethel Sawin, Mr. James A. Cooke, Mr. Thomas Bannon, J. Belanger, E. Breen, S. D'Alessandro.

Do you know that the students run this school? They do in part. Through our Student Council the student body's views are made known to Mr. Cooke and his administration. Likewise, Mr. Cooke makes known certain matters through the Council to the students. Every class is represented on the Council. This unit is not only democracy in action but it also directs democratic participation by supervising class and school elections. Mr. Cooke, Miss Sawin, and Mr. Bannon are the directors of this important group. The Council meets perodically and Mr. Cooke discusses with the members policies and plans, such as assembly programs.

Scharpe, P. Zuromskis, S. Packard.

At least once a week by-way of the daily bulletin we learn that the National Forensic League, or as more commonly known "the N.F.L." is slated for another session or off on another trip. Theirs is serious business, for the members are representing our school from Maine to Connecticut and are doing it well. They just don't talk, they must think straight, they debate, they extemporize, they orate. While the rest of us may be enjoying a vacation, the N.F.L. members are spreading the name and the fame of our school. The advisors to our senior group are Miss Dorothy Churchill and Miss Elizabeth Rowe.

Masque and Wig Society

Broadway and the Rialto had better look to their laurels! We mean now that we have at last the proper facilities for the training for and the presentation of stage productions, we can become the off-Broadway best bet for our Thespian ways. For our would-be Hamlets admission is not casual or easy — they must have the makings of the actor and the actress. Their work is hard and serious — their enjoyment great. Those symbols on the door of Room B 21 don't scare us because within it are the means to expand our personality and appreciate a great art. Miss Elizabeth Rowe is the guiding hand behind this extra-curricular activity.

Our school is almost a community in itself. It has over twelve hundred daily inhabitants and the facilities to meet our needs. And as a community it must have an organ of public expression for the informing of its residents and the molding of popular opinion. Our TOWN CRIER does just that. Periodically it informs and enlightens us. It gives us the gossip, the book reviews, the highlights of sports, club happenings, and editorial comment — and pictures, too! Its many features need much talent and we have it in abundance. We can beat the Philadelphia INQUIRER's boast. EVERYONE reads the TOWN CRIER. Miss Mary O'Hara directs the large staff.

With our new school something unusual and not just new has been added. And by looking at the above title we don't want you to think that it is in the field of chemistry or physics. We refer to the Library Science Club. That's the group of active and alert Senior girls that are helping Mrs. Flagg to get our Library into operation. It is a long, tedious job in getting all books ready for the shelves. From the moment the book is received, there are about seven operations that must be done to make the book shelf-ready, such as numbering, stamping, card cataloging, filing, covering, etc. Our Library girls have already acquired from Mrs. Betty Flagg those qualities needed for library assistance; gracious, helpful, knowledgeable, friendly.

It is said that music is a universal language. If that is so then our school is on excellent speaking terms with the world. Participation in the band activities is a time-consuming pursuit. Not only do our band members practice during class hours but many times at night as well. Their long hours of practice result in performances that are polished, skilled, and disciplined. That they must possess musical skill goes without saying. But to be a staying-member one must have the qualities of perseverance sacrifice, and endurance. It is that kind of hard work. We are proud of our band. Mr. Lorne Ford is the director of this group.

Glee Club

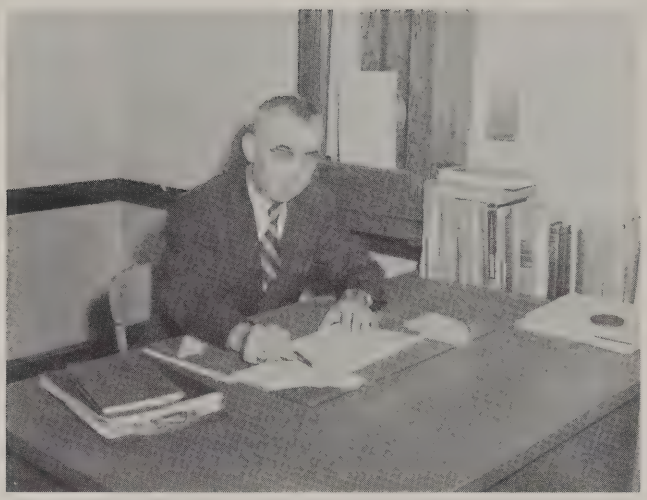

Down corridor F behind the vastness of the auditorium the sweet songs of youth echo during the mid-morning practice. This is an activity that needs no persuasion. Ask any homeroom teacher about the rush from homeroom when practice is scheduled. For interest, determination and enthusiasm you have to go some to beat these glee club members. By their public and assembly performances much pleasure is created but it can't be matched with the sheer joy that the members themselves experience. Our school has its scholastic attainments and athletic achievements, but the activity that gives a patina of culture is the excellence of musical endeavors. Mr. Louis Vella is our director.

Mr. Francis Bergstrom

The cheerleaders of Shrewsbury Junior-Senior High School are organized for the purpose of inciting interest among the students and encouraging all to support their teams, by attending games and cheering the boys on to victory. To make our squad one of which the school may be proud, the cheerleaders abide by a constitution.

Last year, after basketball season ended, Judith Lutz was elected to captain this year's squad. The squad consists of three seniors, three juniors, and three freshmen, one of which is an alternate. The cheerleaders are chosen by a committee composed of three members of the student council. Voting takes place one month after baskeball season has ended.

When voting for a cheerleader, one looks for personality, pep, and appearance.

They lost to North and Commerce in a triangular meet.

At the Knights of Columbus Marathon, five members received trophies. They were Dick Dupre, Brian Grimley, Stephen Tosi, John Campanale, and Roy Chesley.

At the Wachusett Invitational meet, George Flynn, Dick Dupre, and Stephen Tosi received trophies.

Dick Dupre and George Flynn received ribbons from St. Johns.

Some of the outstanding members of the team were: George Flynn, Dick Dupre, Stephen Tosi, Roy Chesley, and Brian Grimley. Brian Grimley will captain next year's squad.

The 1958 football season was not wholly starred with victories for the Shrewsbury High eleven, but the team was a magnet for large attendance at all games. It was an eight-game season with Shrewsbury in the win column two times, in the loss column three times and were tied in three games. Four of the games were with Worcster city teams, namely South, North, Trade and St. John's. Three games were played with county teams, namely Auburn, Wachusett and Gardner. The eighth game was with Marlboro. Despite the entries on the 1958 record book, the season and the team afforded us many thrills and conversation pieces right up to Christmas. We can never forget that last Friday in October 1958 when our boys traveled to North High in Worcester after a rousing send-off from a noon-day assembly at Beal and broke both the heart and the win streak of supposedly invincible North. North had gone undefeated in twenty-four starts but had met its Waterloo in the inspired play of the Colonial eleven. Marlboro tripped us in the season's opener. We tied the terrific Trade High the following week. Another tie handed us by St. John's, but we broke through the win barrier when we upended South High of Worcester. The heights of Wachusetts in Holden caused us to make lapses in our play that insured the Holdeners a victory. We restored our football prestige when we walloped Auburn the following game with a really lopsided score. There was nothing for which we were thankful (footballwise) on Thanksgiving Day when the Gardner City eleven planted us squarely on the nose by a 40 to 0 shut-out. Our senior boys played great ball all season especially John Trinder and John Marcimo, our co-captains, who turned in bone-cracking performance against the opposition. Our other senior notables were Jon Adams, Brian Burhoe, John Rossi, Bill Southard, and Phil Bergman.

First Row: B. Grimley, J. Jasper, J. Maurello, K. Turnquist, F. Horan, R. Qualey. Second Row: S. Cummings, G. Perkins, M. Foley, A. Tucker, R. Chesley, M. Costello. Mr. Michael Kleminich, (Coach)

Our Shrewsbury High basketball team, under the able leadership of Coach Kleminich and captain Joe Maurello, came up with a record of seven wins and eight losses while playing a rough schedule.

The inexperienced team lost its first four games to city teams and the fifth to Wachusett. The caliber of play improved, as we won the next two games, a real close one with Auburn and a more substantial win against Clinton. Northbridge proved to be the team in our league which plagued the Shrewsbury five, as we dropped the next game to them.

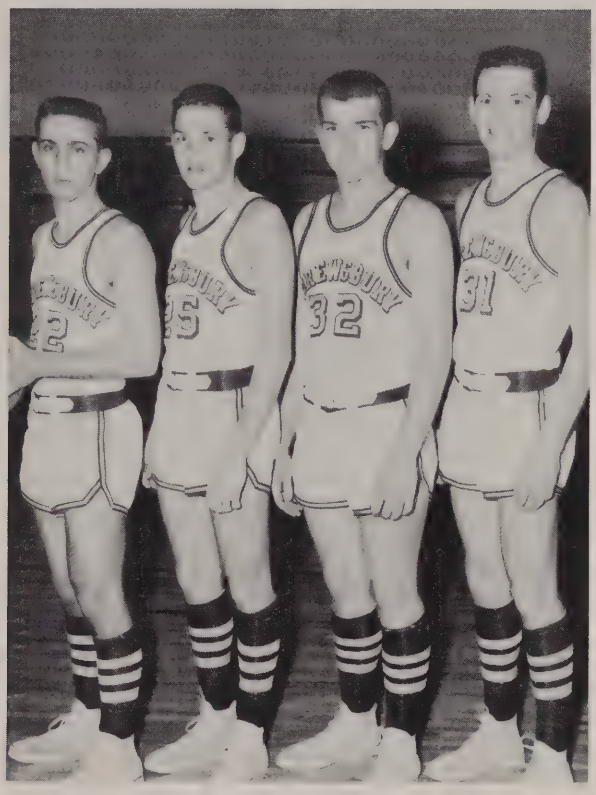

Regaining stride, the Colonials came back to take the next four games from Wachusett, Marlboro, Clinton, and Auburn. Afer losing to a strong St. Mary's team, the Colonials again lost to Northbridge, the only team to win twice over the Colonials. The season ended with a well-played game against Marlboro which was won by Shrewsbury.

Graduation will mean the loss of Joe Maurello (team captain), Butch Horan, Allen Tucker and Ken Turnquist. Next year's captains will be John Jasper and Bob Casey. The returning varsity members will be: John Jasper, Bob Casey, Mike Costello, Dick Qualey, George Perkins, Roy Chesley, Brian Grimley and Mike Foley.

Last year's baseball team did fairly well by compiling a record of ten wins and six losses, and placing third in the Central Worcester County League.

This year the team will be captained by John Rossi, Ronald Regan, and Allen Tucker. The first practice sessions will start in early March in the new gymnasium. Coach Kleminick has said that the team will be able to have every kind of drill in the gym with the exception of hitting.

Shrewsbury has been entered in a combination of the former Blackstone Valley League and The Midland League. Shrewsbury will play sixteen games in league play and also two games with St. Johns and Trade and one with Assumption.

The team is looking toward a very successful season, with an experienced senior at each position, and the added depth of many capable underclassmen.

Crew

Opening day for the Crew

Despite the fact that the crew lost six of its last year's members, it hopes to have a fine season through the expert coaching of Chief Kenneth Burns. Some of the schools scheduled for this years competition include Kent, Tabor, Columbia, and Springfield Tech. The season will be climaxed with the New England Regatta on Lake Quinsigamond. The School would like to express its sincere thanks to the Rotary Club for their donation of three training barges.

The Squad

First Row: M. Zingarelli, L. Parmenter, C. Luby, M. Molinari, P. Stockman, P. Maurello, K. Collins, J. Cartier, C. Giofreda. Second Row: N. Loftus (Manager), P. Cote, N. Plante, A. Woodward, J. Cronin, J. Vigneault, M. Parmenter, N. Roberts, J. Belanger, S. Larson. Third Row: P. Vaughan, G. Johanson, B. Heck, E. Sampson, L. Snow, B. Anderson, M. Fleming, P. Porter, C. Borgatti, J. Bartlett, Miss Margaret Chase (Coach). Fourth Row: D. Long, L. Small, L. Carlo, E. Breen, S. Carlson, P. Beaudry, L. Basillissa, S. Jacobs, B. Butler, J. Hoctor.

Kneeling: C. Borgatti, B. Anderson, A. Woodward, J. Belanger, J. Vigneault (co-captain), J. Cronin (co-captain), P. Cote, S. Larson, and P. Porter. Standing: Miss Margaret Chase (coach), E. Sampson, N. Roberts, M. Fleming, L. Snow, D. Long, N. Plante, M. Parmenter.

The girls' field hockey squad of 1958 ended the season with only one loss; to Millbury. This fine record is attributed to the hard work of the girls and especially to Miss Chase for her great patience and excellent coaching.

The forward line, consisting of Judy Cronin, Pat Cote, Judy Vigneault, Carol Borgatti, and Joan Belanger proved to be one of the best Shrewsbury has ever had. The team led by their Co-captains Judy Cronin and Judy Vigeault, demonstrated fine ability and sportsmanship.

The most exciting game of the season was with Wachusett, Judy Vigneault managed to hit the ball right into the padding of Wachusett's goalie. A bully was taken in front of Wachusett's goal and Betty Anderson scored for Shrewsbury.

We wish next year's squad, captained by Betty Anderson and Maureen Fleming, a very successful season.

Girls' Basketball

Front Row: J. Bartlett, D. Moroz, G. Johanson. Second Row: A. Horne, S. Larson, L. Snow, V. Arnberg, P. Vaughan, J. Sandberg, B. Anderson, M. Fleming, A. Cowan. Third Row: M. Parmenter (Manager), E. Sampson, M. Russell, R. Glenn, P. Beaudry, J. O'Conner, C. Packard, M. Reiman, P. Wood, Miss Phyllis Hall (Coach), G. Garland (Manager).

The girls' basketball team, led by Co-captains Pat Vaughan and Joyce Sandberg, was certainly one to be exceptionally proud of this year. Not only because of the record of 9 wins and 2 losses, but also including the fact that this team was the first to be entered in a tournament.

The Girls' Invitational Tournament of Central Massachusetts was held at Grafton High School at the close of our regular season, and after our win over the undefeated Grafton Six, we entered the finals.

Due to the marvelous teamwork of the girls and the outstanding scoring on the part of Betty Anderson, we were able to place second and take home the runner-up trophy.

The squad wishes to thank Miss Hall for her fine coaching, terrific sense of humor, and endless patience. We also give thanks to Martha Parmenter and Gail Garland, who have been with the team for three years as our faithful managers. We wish next year's Co-captains, Betty Anderson and Pat Wood, as much luck as we have encountered this year.

Our team also sincerely thanks our fellow classmates for their interest shown throughout the season.

Girls' Basketball Captains

Pat Vaughan, Miss Phyllis Hall (coach) and Joyce Sandberg
